Letter to the editor

Editor:

We did not reach our Bloodmobile goal of 110 units but are very happy that we did get 92 units. I feel strongly that we could have at least reached the 100 mark had the electricity not gone off for about an hour. A few donors had to leave. A total of 97 donors registered.

I don't know what we are going to do to get some new donors started. Last visit we had no first timers and this visit only one. Helen T. Walker. We had a good list of regulars as usual and they are really getting some big numbers to their credit: two seven-gallon donors, Howard E. Ferguson and Kenneth T. Doss. Mrs. Eleanor Stratton reached the 6-gallon mark. Two four-gallon donors, Eleanor R. Johnson and Lyna M. Lucado. Gordon Staples received his 3-gallon pin. Two-gallon donors were: William Dickerson, Waynce C. Jennings, and Donald L. Bryant. Four donors reached the one-gallon mark: Gwendolyn P. Franklin, Warren P. Mayberry, Bernard Slayton & Howard W. Tucker. A Big Thanks to each of you, blood recipients are so grateful.

Our canteen hostess for this visit was The Junior Woman's Club and they did a fine job. Miss Angie Thompson assisted her mother Carolyn and she really was a big help. Other club members who helped were Sandra B. White and Gail R. Thompson. Pepsi Cola Bottling furnished the Pepsi and Dr. Pepper, as usual, and Lee Grant & Travelers Inn supplied the ice. Food World contributed the juice and bread. The cookies, chicken salad and cheese spread, plus napkins, cups etc. was furnished by the Junior Womans Club. Thanks to the Times-Virginian, W.T.T.X. and the Lynchburg News for publicity. In addition to the canteen workers there were a total of 41 volunteers who gave of their time to work the stations needed at the collection site Again thanks to Liberty Baptist Church for their generosity and the air conditioning. Thanks to C.L. Purdue and Jr. Beasley for putting up large signs.

Sincerely,
Alice C. Martin
Chairman

Club officers meet

By CHERYL SIMPSON

The new officers of the Appomattox Junior Chapter Future Farmers of America, met on Aug. 23, 1983. We reviewed parliamentary procedure and practiced an FFA meeting.

Each officer is chairman of a committee ranging from public relations to scholarship. As chairmen, we outlined activities through which we hope to achieve the goal set for each committee. A few things we have planned for this year are a forging demonstration at the Railroad Festival, a children's fort at the FFA Park, and a bulletin board with photographs of members' supervised occupational experience programs. These are included in our program of work for 1983-84. Our next officers' meeting will be held on Thurs., Sept. 1, from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.
